NEW CLUB FORMED

Students and Friends of Otterbein Join in Re-union.

Word was received during the summer that a re-union of Otterbein students in attendance at Chicago University had been held at Jackson Park, Chicago, Ill., on July 3, last. Twenty-eight sons and daughters of Otterbein participated in an appetizing lunch, spread on the lawn of the beautiful park. Fruits, lemonade, and sandwiches were stowed away in enormous quantities.

Bishop W. M. Matthews, '70, acted as toastmaster, and speeches were made by President Clippinger, Mr. C. E. Ashcraft, Campbell College, Holton, Kan.; Professor E. P. Durrant, '04, of the Ohio State University, Professor W. A. Weber, '06, of Bonebrake Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio; Professor E. M. H. '05, of Albert Academy, Freetown, West Africa, Rev. M. D. Leach, of Weaver Memorial church, Chicago, Ill.; and Miss Emma Burtner, Germantown, Ohio.

At the close of the program, a permanent organization was effected, to be known as the Otterbein Club of Chicago University, to include in its membership all United Brethren people attending the university, as well as graduates of United Brethren schools and colleges. Mr. L. E. Walters, of Findlay, Ohio, was elected president, and Miss Emma Burtner, Secretary and Treasurer of the organization.

Otterbein Friend Dies.

The many friends of Marcellus and Emma Muskopf were deeply saddened, when the news of their father's death reached here.

Mr. S. Muskopf passed away on Thursday morning after a very short illness. He was a man of the finest Christian character, holding nothing but the highest ideals before his family and friend. His earnest and active work in Reformed church circles reflects well upon his influence.

Did anyone see Russell?

STUDENTS REJOICE

Free Mail Delivery Granted to Westerville.

Students as well as the people are highly elated over new received recently by master G. L. Stoughton, in effect that free mail delivery has been granted to Westerville, to become operative November 1, 1912. Students will thereafter be spared many anxious and disappointing trips to the post office.

PROFESSOR E.W.E. SCHEAR

New Head of the Department of Biology.

Professor E. W. E. Schear, B. S. (1907), who has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the biological department caused by the resignation of Professor J. W. Funk, comes to his work highly equipped and with a wide experience as teacher of this science. He superintended the department of natural history at Westfield College, at Westfield, Illinois, for the past five years, the last of which he served as president. He has pursued graduate work in Chicago and during the past year did like work at Columbia. He will make valuable additions to the already splendid staff of instructors at Otterbein.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE

Many Changes Have Occurred During the Summer Months.

Students returning to Otterbein were delighted to see that so many improvements had been made about the institution during their absence. The Philophronean Literary society has made considerable changes in their hall, including decorating, new furniture, and also a new carpet. In addition to this a bank vault has been installed for filing papers of the society, and reception and reading rooms added. The building on College Ave. has been re-located, cement walks laid; and the lot graded. Tennis courts will be marked off in the near future.

A new hard-wood floor was placed in Professor Kiehl's room, and the bell tower has been re-constructed. A fine new carpet covers the floors of Cochran Hall, and many minor improvements.

Sophomores to Meet.

sophomores will meet this to formulate plans for their "push."

GIRLS ENJOY EVENING

Large Number Gathers for First Social Event of the Year.

Last Friday evening the Kary home was thrown open to the Y. W. C. A. girls for a frolic. Japanese lanterns were hung on the porch and throughout the garden, lighting the paths to the different seats. The first glance suggested hospitality and soon all the girls, old and new, were chatting together and following the light of the lanterns. Lawn games were enjoyed, and then, to the music of the Otterbein March, the girls started through the house where they found refreshments of grapes, apples and nabiscos. About one hundred and twenty-five girls were present to enjoy the festivities.

Wm. Langham, '60, Dies.

Word has recently been received of the death of Wm. Langham, '60, which occurred at his home, at Mystic Bluff Fruit Farm, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on August 19, 1912. Mr. Langham, a former resident of Westerville, has been engaged in farming and horticulture during his last years.

ATHLETICS

DELIGHTED WITH COACH

Gardner Makes Good Impression Upon All Who Meet Him.

Mr. William C. Gardner, of Grand Forks, N. D., is a graduate of Carlisle Indian School, and will have entire supervision of all forms of athletics this year. He was a team-mate of last year's coach of foot-ball, Mr. A. A. Exendine. He and Mr. Exendine were all-American ends of the football team of their last year at Carlisle. During the past year Mr. Gardner directed athletics at the Louisville, Ky. manual training school and comes highly recommended as coach not only of football in which he is expert, but for all branches of athletics.

Those who have met him are satisfied that he is the man for the place. He is strictly moral in his habits, and insists upon the fellows living clean lives themselves, thus preparing for the on-coming contests. He may be classed as one of the foremost coaches of the state and his knowledge of training is shown by his methods of the early workout. As yet the outlook for positions is doubtful and much competition is assured for each place on the team. The outcome is left to the good judgment of Gardner and the men he picks will support a good season of football.

WILLIAM C. GARDNER

Otterbein's New All-year Coach of Athletics.

Bowerston, O., will have supervision of the athletics for the young lady students, and will work under Mr Gardner's direction. Miss Parsons has taken special training in physical culture at several institutions, and will undoubtedly be successful promoting the athletic interest among the girls of Otterbein.

On the Gridiron.

Snavely is taking a little extra practise in punting. Those long punts and long passes will help us out this year.

Plott is out again to show his strength in plunges and Wesleyan will have a hard proposition to face when Harold carries the ball!

The coach ought to pick a good team from the material that reported, for both speed and weight are among the qualities shown.

A few sore shoulders and muscles were petted by some over-enthusiastic warriors.

MEN WANTED

Several New Men are Trying for Positions on the Team.

The football outlook for the season of 1912 is promising in many respects although Coach Gardner would like to see ten or fifteen more candidates out for the team. The call for men last week brought out between twenty-five and thirty men, many of whom have had some football training. Coach Gardner has been working the squad very consistently on the rudiments of the game for the past week, and will begin work in earnest today. Only two weeks remain to get the squad in shape for the game with Ohio Wesleyan, so the next two weeks will be strenuous and gruelling for candidates.

With six letter men back in school and a dozen or more very promising new men the season of 1912 ought to be a very successful one.

OTTERBEINESQUES.

A "finished product" may be seen stalking about the streets of Westerville, always with company.

Prexy said in his address to the students Wednesday morning, "You won't break down if you get three good meals a day." (Did you hear the dorm girls giggle?)

Spirit.

During the past week, we have heard a few complaints about the lack of spirit here. The 'old place is dead,' and 'there is nothing doing,' and like statements have come to our attention. Is this true? If so, why not start something? Fellows, let us revive the spirit. Real men, alive and full of life are here in plenty. Let us 'cut up' a little, indulge in pranks, have plenty of fun, of the clean and legitimate kind. No one will complain. A little of the enthusiasm now prevailing in athletics needs to be injected into other college activities. Preps, freshies, sophs, everybody, get busy, and show that college spirit is not lacking here.

Smoking.

Three days have elapsed since the opening day at Otterbein, and as yet nothing has been said from the chapel platform regarding smoking. We do not wish to be regarded as cranks, or as holding a radical position on this question, but disregarding the moral phase of the habit, can a student at Otterbein, with profit to himself, indulge in the habit? A morning paper recently had an editorial on the subject, and held that the fellow who smokes might just as well go back home and get to work for all the good school will do him. Gratifying sensuous appetites even in a mild and moderate degree unfits the student for educational purposes.

(This editorial was written prior to Monday. Nuf ced.)

College Publications.

Otterbein supports two college papers, the Otterbein Review, a weekly issue, and the Aegis, a monthly. No student can afford to be without them. He may devour the learning of text books, participate in athletics, attend all social and literary functions about the institution, but unless he is a regular reader of the college news, he fails to keep in touch with real life about Otterbein. His education is not symmetrical.

To be an all-around college student, he must subscribe for both these publications. Agents will see you this week. After you read the papers, send them to friends at home. It means more students for O. U. SUBSCRIBE NOW!

Is it You?

At the last meeting of the trustees of Otterbein University a committee on instruction was appointed, whose business it was to examine the character of the work done at the institution, the efficiency of the teachers, and the capacity and application of the students. The committee reported the teaching force as ample, the studies offered as being sufficiently comprehensive, and that the institution could be recommended without embarrassment to any student seeking a liberal education. The following item was noted from the report,—"That the members of the faculty, with a few exceptions, are to be highly commended for their punctuality, promptness, zeal for their respective departments, etc. Why any exceptions?

We trust that another year will see further efficiency on the part of the faculty, and that not a single exception will be found to an adequate teaching force at the college.

Be Patient!

The close of each day should find us better characters, more noble souls. The purpose of each day should be to better know ourselves, our weaknesses, as well as our strong forts.

Students, new at Otterbein have grown impatient after a very few days, and felt as if they ought to return home to their old environment. This is the transition period of life. You are in college atmosphere, a complete change from that which you formerly breathed. Your adjustment to the change will be gradual, but nevertheless certain.

A few weeks at old Otterbein will be sufficient to show you that you are in the best place in the world.

Growth and elevation of character, the birth of new and higher ideals is bound to come, so be patient.

The Origin of Tennis.

Tennis was played first in England about 1550. It was adapted from the French handball or palm play and was played in covered courts. Henry VII and Henry VIII were fond of this game.

James I recommended tennis to the crown prince as a good amusement. Charles II was an accomplished player and was the first to dress in a special costume while playing tennis—Kansas City Star.

The best way to sympathize with some men is to shake them.

The thing we call success is a definite art that one must cultivate with the exercise of his gray matter.

Y. M. C. A.*President Clippinger Delivers
Opening Address to One-Hundred Men.

An address based upon Professor James' book, entitled "Talks to Teachers," was given to the men assembled at the Young Men's Christian association meeting last Thursday evening. It was of a psychological nature and was handled in President Clippinger's usual good fashion, even though he apologized for the condition of his brain. It was in main a discussion of habit formation and the building of character, factors which cannot be disjoined from the true meaning of education.

Although the speaker did not attempt to sermonize, the fellows were exhorted to search themselves, to make an investigation or inventory of their own personal make-ups. Several maxims were suggested to aid the boys in living pure and wholesome lives. Mental attitudes affect our living, and also determine for us the career which we will make in life.

More and more men are determining character upon an economic basis, and today even the churches are being tested as to their economic efficiency.

Men are making estimates of the fellows in college. What an individual is while in college determines what he will be in his future life.

Men in college are select men. The fact that boys have overcome financial obstacles and sometimes the opposition of parents ranks them of superior caliber. They have grit and courage that the non-college man never has. They are constantly being "spotted" by friends and estimates of character are being placed upon them.

Each man is endowed with his own peculiar mental make-up; he has a normal mind. Reflections of our own soul will go far toward making character. A few of Professor James' maxims are as follows:

- (1) Act on the first impulse for right in the direction of the habit which you wish to form.
- (2) Never allow a single exception to occur until this habit is firmly rooted and grounded in your being.

As we habituate ourselves to right thinking and right living, just so in proportion, will we be clean men. Many fellows are living a 'hit and miss' life in their class work, attendance upon church services, college activities, etc. These loose habits will follow them through life.

We should probe ourselves, diagnose our lives, until we find the 'sore spot,' and determine to remedy them.

Social Time Follows.

After the devotional meeting, a good social time was enjoyed by the fellows in the reception room of the association building. Wieners were ravenously devoured by the fellows. Chairman Peck and President Funkhouser were kept busy serving. Yells and songs followed which greatly enlivened the evening's enjoyment.

Prexy Has Hard Week.

In addition to the busy life incidental to the beginning of a new year, President Clippinger has been making numerous addresses during the past week. On Tuesday last, he presided at the meeting of the state branch of the National Reform Association, and also delivered an address upon the subject, "The Supremacy of the Moral Interests of the State."

On Wednesday morning he gave the address at the opening exercises of Otterbein's sixty-sixth year, choosing for a subject, "Twentieth-Century Ideals for Student Life."

On Thursday evening he spoke before the Young Men's Christian Association at their initial meeting, taking for his theme, "Factors in Determining Character."

On Friday evening he addressed the session of East Ohio conference, held at Warren, Ohio.

This week he will make addresses at the sessions of Sandusky Conference, held at Chicago Jct., Ohio, and Allegheny Conference, held at Windber, Pa.

On Sunday evening he will deliver the opening address of the Young Men's Christian Association of Denison University, Granville, Ohio.

A gift of $25,000 was received by German Wallace College, Berea, Ohio, from the widow of James Wallace of Detroit, Mich., in whose honor the college was named.

JOINT RECEPTION GIVEN*New Students Initiated into College Society.

The Y. M. C. A. reception halls were crowded to their capacity Saturday night. It was the first big night in Otterbein society. The Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. reception is always anticipated with the keenest pleasure by the older students, and brings a spark of intense enthusiasm to the new arrivals. The event of Saturday night excelled previous receptions in several details.

In the informal program, Miss Berne Parsons gave an enjoyable reading, followed by piano solo, Camp Foltz; vocal solo, Miss Grace Denton and Daddy Resler, assisted by Prof. Gilbert on the violin.

The outlook for an enjoyable social year is most pleasant.

HOLD BOARD MEETING*Season Tickets Will be Sold to Local Patrons of Athletics.

The Otterbein Athletic Board held its first meeting of the year Friday Sept. 13 and planned for the athletic need of the teams of the coming year. A budget committee consisting of Professor Rosselot, J. L. Snively, E. N. Funkhouser and L. M. Troxell was appointed to see that each manager arranges his schedule to come within the limits of the fixed budget obtained from the student athletic fee. The amount obtained through this means however, is inadequate for the required budget and a new enterprise was launched to get the remaining amount by subscription from the alumni. Personal letters will be sent to the alumni asking for their hearty support of athletics and together with the sale of season tickets to local people it is thought that the problem will be solved. The price of this ticket was fixed at five dollars. The extra expense of an athletic physician was eliminated and steps will be taken to provide for medical attention when necessary. The board planned for a greater number of rallies during the year to arouse the athletic spirit of the students, to help the teams to be victorious, also to suggest tryouts for student cheer leaders.

Obituary.

Ralph William Moses, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moses, was born Jan. 1, 1891, in Westerville, Ohio, and died Aug. 15, 1912, aged 21 years, 7 months and 14 days. The funeral was held Sunday, August 18, 1912 at 3 o'clock from the family residence, with Rev. Shane in charge. Professor F. E. Miller read a beautiful tribute to his life as a student and townsman. After graduating from the Westerville High school in 1908, Mr. Moses entered Otterbein University, and graduated with the class of 1912.

From the beginning of his college course, he was popular with the student body, and took an active interest in all social, literary and athletic activities. He was

"WHO'S WHERE"

Cochran Hall Directory Compiled by Resident.

On the first floor we meet some of last year's friends, Nelle Hom- in house and Lucile Welch. Edith White and Lucile these do not need an introduction. Nor does Blanche Ilock, who is still at Cochran Hall. Nelle has a new room-mate, Mary White of Mon- roe, Wisconsin, who bid fair to be introduced here this. There are three little maid from John- ston on his floor, Anna Miller, Helen Eldridge and Ina Fulton. Helen would like to be a drum- major, but Ina won't allow it and Anna is to look after both of them.

On the second floor we meet Esta, Bonita, Nettie Lee, Grace Brane, Lydia Garver, and Ruth Cogan only too well known. Nelle Shupe is rooming with Sue Gabel of Dayton. That is her name as written after the consti- tution although she claims she lost it and goes by a number. She is quite talkative and keeps Nelle cheered up. Ople Shanks and Mae Baker of Sugar Creek, Mary Pore of West Newton, Pa., (great camp meeting place), Helen Baltzly of Beach City, Bertha Fliemann of Harrison, are a few new girls whom we will know more about later. Iva Hel- lein hails from Scottdale. Hazel Beard, Mary Clymer, a former student from Chicago Ill., and Edna Miller, of Dayton finish that bunch.

Being at that end of the Hall we go upstairs to find a jolly bunch of Dayton girls chaperoned (?) by Ruth Koontz—Janet and Dorothy Gilbert, Dora Beck and Marie Hendrick. In this corner lives Zella Fish of Bowling Green, who is DeWitt's cousin. The other corner room is a landmark, "Bert" and Mary living there. Opal and Ethel a happy young couple, the busy Huntworks, our two Dutch friends, and Vida and Myrtle are on this floor. Ruth Ingle and France White also as- cended a few more steps. Ethel Garn and Stella Kuris of Day- ton are quiet members. Lenore Eide is Wilda's personal help meet. Thelma and Pat are trying to look as settled in the same place as the before mentioned landmarks. Last but not least Ruth Weimer and Mary William- son are looking after each other (Mary's shoes are quieter than Ruth's.)

Up on the fourth floor, Iva Har- ley, Mary Grant, Miss Denton. (Don't you know them?) My- nette Wilson, and her cousin Bon- nie Grant, Claire McCutcheon and El- va. Even also are on this floor. Ethel Old has a sweet little room-mate, Norma M. Hall, of Dayton, who after signing her name in behalf of this column, even offered her name and parents. Anna Drury, Zelma Barrett, Clara Hendrix have already been intro- duced in C. U. Lora Burwell come from Linden Heights and Delphine Scheifele from Portland, Oregon. Stella Lilly of Hicks- ville and Mabel Ijwick of Mt. Healthy, complete this list.

If anyone failed to be mention- ed come out and say so for you cannot get acquainted any ear- lier.

Laugh, and the World Laughs With You.

Laugh, and the world laugh with you;
Weep, and you weep alone;
For this brave old earth must bor- row its mirth,
It has trouble enough of its own.
Sing, and the hills will answer;
Sigh! it is lost on the air;
The echoes bound to a joyful sound,
But shrink from voicing care.
Rejoice, and men will seek you;
Grieve, and they turn and go;
They want full measure of all your pleasure,
But they do not want your woe.
Be glad, and your friends are many;
Be sad, and you lose them all;
There are none to decline your nectared wine,
But alone you must drink life's gall.
Feast, and your halls are crowd- ed;
Fast, and the world goes by;
Succeed and give, and it helps you lie,
But no man can help you die.
There is room in the halls of pleasure
For a long and lordly train;
But one by one we must file on
Through the narrow alley of pain.

Thinks of the Smaller College
The day of the smaller college is coming again. Of course the special inducements offered by state universities as public institutions will always make them popular; but may there not be some relief because of the preference which many people now express for small colleges? The country has scores of these colleges and not a few of them enjoy an excellent reputation. They can give a fine discipline as any of the larger institutions, have the advantage of bringing faculty and students close to- gether and are freer from distractions than the big rivals. A professor in one of those vast institutions told us some time ago that he would never entrust his son to it for training. To our question as to the ground for this strange remark, he said oracularly: "The gains are too little and the possible losses too great. I prefer the smaller col- lege." Chicago Herald.

Ohio State.

It is reported that "Sam" Will- amson, star half-back and pun- er of the 1911 football team of Ohio State University, will not be in school this year. He was con- sidered a find of the 1911 season and the team will miss his splendid work in backfield this fall.

Raise the standard of your work if you are expecting to raise your income.

Slang Forbidden.

The State University of Kan- sas has placed the ban on the following slang terms: It's up to you. I don't think. Not on your life. Search me. I guess. That's thing some. Can you beat it? Sure, I will. That looks quite spiffy. There's some class to that. Are you on? That's awfully nice. It's a cinch. Oh fudge! Cut it out. Talk- ing to beat the band. They're not in it. It's all bosh. Nothing doing. That's nifty. Never again. Cough up. He has noth- ing on me. The surest thing you know. Not to be sneered at. That's the real him, the stu- dent. Not by a long shot. I see his finish. Get the hook. That will be about all—sincerely, d.

We expect to see in every game this year and a large delegation should accompany the team to Delaware Sept. 25.

A shock-proof man is seldom undertaken by opportunity.
